

DO I HAVE AN INTEREST?

1. Read the agenda.
2. Does any of the business affect me, my spouse or partner if it is a disclosable pecuniary interest, or someone I am associated with if it is an other disclosable interest?
3. If yes, check below to see if the way I am affected is an interest I have to do something about at the meeting.

Type of Interest	Description	What should I do?
Disclosable Pecuniary Interests
Source of income	Job, trade, profession or vocation	Declare the interest at the meeting. Leave the room unless you have a dispensation. If you have not registered the interest, do so within 28 days of the meeting.
Sponsorship of election expenses	Did anyone pay my election expenses?
Contract between me and the council	Any contract not fully completed
Land	Occupation, ownership or tenancy of land of any sort within the council's area. (Buildings count as land.) Corporate tenancies where the council is the landlord and the councillor's firm is the tenant.
Stocks and shares	Shares in an organisation which has a place of business in the council's area, in which the councillor has shares worth more than £25,000 at nominal value , or one hundredth of the total issued share capital.
Other Disclosable Interests
Pecuniary interest	A financial interest in the item that affects me or an organisation or someone I am associated with	Declare the interest. Leave the room if anyone would think you are biased, unless you have a dispensation.
Close connection	A close connection with the item that affects me or an organisation or someone I am associated with	Declare the interest. Leave the room if the item of council business is a planning or regulatory matter and anyone would think you are biased, unless you have a dispensation.
Membership of another local authority or public body, whether or not as the council's representative.	Only gives rise to an interest if anyone would think you are likely to be biased.	Declare the interest.
